THREE HALEYS TO BE BURIED ON THURSDAY

With the recovery this morning of the third body from the Sunday evening fishing tragedy that claimed three lives in an Emmitsburg family, plans were made for funeral services for the trio Thursday morning in Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg.

This morning about 8:20 o'clock searchers in a boat bound for dragging operations in the area of the tragedy sighted the body of Joseph P. Haley, 26, Emmitsburg, floating about a quarter mile from the scene of the tragedy, and pulled it from the Chesapeake Bay waters.

The bodies of Mrs. Mary M. (Rentsel) Haley, 27, his wife, and their four-year-old son, Joseph Jr., had been found earlier. The child's body was recovered about 9 p.m. Sunday and the mother early Monday morning.

Fishing Boat Capsized

The tragedy occurred while the trio and four others were fishing in a 14-foot boat off Tilghman Island in Harris Creek where the water is 14 feet deep and currents are swift. With its motor dead, the boat apparently foundered in waves from other boats and the boat capsized.

One of those thrown into the water, Scoey Sells, 30, Taneytown, saved three others by getting them to boats that converged at the scene. Rescued were Rebecca Haley, 16, and Susan Haley, sisters of the drowned man, and Josephine Haley, aged six, whose parents died.

Thursday's Requiem Mass will be 10 o'clock with the Rev. Fr. Martin J. Sleasman officiating. Interment will be made in the new St. Joseph's Church Cemetery.

Grandmother Survives

Friends may call at the Wilson Funeral Home at Emmitsburg Wednesday evening after 7 o'clock where prayers will be recited at 8 p.m.

Survivor of Mr. Haley in addition to those previously listed is his grandmother, Mrs. Mary M. Stouter, Emmitsburg.

Mr. Haley, a member of the Emmitsburg Fire Company, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Haley, Emmitsburg. His father is a building contractor and the drowning victim was employed by his father in the contracting business.

U.S. Demands Release Of 2 Yankee Fliers By Russians

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, accusing the Soviet Union of illegal and reckless action, has formally demanded release of the two American airmen who fell into Soviet hands after their RB47 plane went down July 1.

The U. S. demand came Monday in a severely worded protest note handed to the Soviet Foreign Ministry in Moscow.

The note claimed they shot down the plane after it violated Soviet territory. U. S. officials say the craft was over international waters.

Ask Joint Probe

State Department press officer Lincoln White, in making the U. S. note public, said the United Nations charter provides for a joint investigation into the facts in such cases.

The note pointed out that the United States had offered to join with the Soviet Union in an investigation but that Moscow has ignored the offer. Instead, the Soviet Union is taking the case to the U. N. Security Council.

The United States welcomes the chance at the Security Council meeting, the note said, "to make clear to world opinion the illegality and recklessness of Soviet behavior with regard to the downing of the RB47 aircraft with the known loss of life of at least one member of its crew and the arbitrary detention of two U. S. Air Force officers."

The note accompanied a Soviet promise to return the body of the pilot, Capt. William A. Palm, and demanded that a U. S. Embassy representative in Moscow be allowed to see without delay the two survivors, Lts. John R. McKone and F. B. Olmstead. Three other crewmen are still unaccounted for.

"Don't Touch Cuba" Shouts Red To U. S.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union today gave the United States a blunt warning: "Don't touch Cuba."

Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev said his country was not threatening the United States with its rockets, but he added: "Don't threaten Cuba with your might, because other countries have might."

Sobolev also declared in a U. N. Security Council debate that the Soviet Union will defeat alleged U. S. efforts to overthrow the Cuban regime of Fidel Castro by an economic war.

He said the Socialist countries are prepared to give Cuba economic help to make sure the Castro government can withstand any U. S. restrictions.

Sobolev strongly opposed a move to transfer the complaint of the Castro government against the United States to the Organization of American States.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL GROUP MEETS FRIDAY

James D. Shaffer, York Springs, president of the Adams County Sunday School Association, announced today that the state-wide conference for presidents and secretaries of Pennsylvania Sabbath School Associations or Councils of Christian Education will be held July 22-24 at Juniata College, Huntingdon.

GOP Drafts Platform For Presidential Candidate

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Republicans swung into their drafting of a 1960 platform today while Democrats shaped strategy for the campaign ahead.

GOP National Chairman Thurston B. Morton set out guidelines for the 109-member Republican Platform Committee gathering in Chicago for its opening session.

Morton called for a pledge to aid in building a better America—but not the "lifelong Garden of Eden" he said the Democrats had promised at their just-concluded Los Angeles convention.

New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was on hand to give his views, too. His fellow politicians were eyeing him for more than just what he might say about the platform.

Rockey Expresses Views

Arriving in Chicago Monday, Rockefeller came out for a civil rights plank he said should go even further than the Democrats' proposal. He favored a ban on racial discrimination in any business operating under federal license and support for sit-in dem-

LIST POLLS BOOTHS FOR WHEAT VOTE

Polling places for the Thursday referendum on marketing quotas for the 1961 crop of wheat were announced today by Carson Lamberson, chairman of the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Growers eligible to vote in the referendum will be those who will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain in 1961, excepting growers taking part in the feed wheat program, Lamberson said.

The wheat quota ballots may be cast Thursday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. at the following places: The Adams County ASC office, Adams Electric Cooperative building, rear of N. Stratton St. for producers in Hamiltonban, Liberty, Highland, Freedom, Mt. Joy, Cumberland, Straban, Butler, Menallen and Franklin Townships.

Other Polling Places Robert's Implement Shop in Littlestown for producers in Mt. Pleasant, Oxford, Berwick and Hamilton Townships.

The Farm Bureau Cooperative building at New Oxford for producers in Mt. Pleasant, Oxford, Berwick and Hamilton Twp.

Lehman's Cash Feed store at York Springs for producers in Reading, Tyrone, Huntingdon and Lattimore Twp.

Lamberson pointed out that at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referendum must approve the quotas if they are to become effective. Under quotas, marketing penalties will apply on "excess" wheat resulting from noncompliance with the farm's wheat acreage allotment, and price supports will be available on the crop at not less than 75 per cent of parity. The exact rate will be determined before the vote.

On the other hand, the chairman said, if more than one-third of the voters oppose the quotas, there will be no restrictions on wheat marketing but allotments will remain in effect as a condition for price support at 50 per cent of parity as directed by law.

Although Adams County growers have voted against quotas, the farmers nationally have approved marketing quotas for the last seven wheat crops. "All eligible farmers should cast their ballots so that the result truly reflects the desires of the growers themselves," J. Glenn Miller, (Continued On Page 3)

TITUSVILLE BLACKED OUT BY BAD STORM

TITUSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Titusville and several surrounding communities were plunged into pitch darkness late Monday night by a severe electrical storm.

A bolt of lightning hit a bank of transformers at the city's key sub-station. Some eight thousand area residents were left without lights or telephone service. There were no injuries reported.

Witnesses said flames shot nearly 100 feet in the air when the transformers were hit. They said the flash could be seen 10 to 15 miles away. Parts of the sub-station's electrical equipment melted from the extreme heat.

"Whole Sky Lit Up"

Emergency generators were put into service at the Titusville Hospital and the police station. All available police officers, firemen and civil defense workers were called out to help keep order.

The city's water station reported it had put emergency power into operation to keep pumping water.

"The whole sky lit up," said Carl Emigh, who was driving to his suburban Titusville home when the bolt hit the transformers. "First I saw a white light, then a red light. It sort of blinked on and off and then the sky went black again."

Interrupts Council

A Titusville policeman said he saw a "awful flash in the sky. It sparkled for about a minute and then it was dark."

Titusville's city council meeting was cut short by the blackout.

The Titusville Herald, a morning daily, was unable to publish from its own plant. Employees moved over to the nearby Oil City Derrick plant to finish putting out Tuesday's paper.

Telephone service was restored to the area in about half an hour. Long distance phone service was not disrupted.

JAZZ CONCERT ENDS IN RIOT

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—An all-Negro jazz concert ended in a riot in which bricks, bottles and other debris were showered on policemen attempting to restore order.

A dozen patrol cars answered the call at municipal auditorium Sunday night as an estimated 5,000 persons milled about the building after the concert was halted.

The crowd pressed in as the police arrested seven Negroes, including rock 'n' roll singer Jackie Wilson.

Police Warning

Police said the disturbance began when one of the 12 officers assigned to the concert cautioned one of the entertainers not to leave the stage and mingle with the audience.

At that point, officers said, the other band members started jumping off the stage and throwing things at the policemen.

"Then everything broke loose," said police. "Everybody in the audience jumped up and joined in the melee."

Charges against those arrested ranged from attempted murder to assaulting officers and inciting a riot.

Area Men Undergo Military Training

John R. Williams, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Williams, Gettysburg R. 3, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Independence operating out of Norfolk, Va.

8 KILLED IN J. C. PENNEY STORE BLAST

MERRILL, Wis. (AP) — A violent explosion turned the J. C. Penney Co. department store into a pile of twisted, charred debris Monday. Eight persons were killed and 11 injured.

"We don't know what caused it," said Mayor Ralph Voigt. "It's a terrible thing for us."

The identified dead were Einar Seger, 55, a customer in the store and former clerk for this village of 10,000 in northern Wisconsin; Mrs. Louis Hamilton, Mrs. Geraldine Wissen, and Mrs. Lawrence Borchardt, all employees; Mrs. George Erickson and her mother, Mrs. Amanda Evans, shoppers; Mrs. Carl Yorde and her son, 12.

I. S. Stats and John McHale, of the State Industrial Commission, began an investigation into the cause of the blast.

The one-story modern building was located on the same site where an A&P supermarket was destroyed by an explosion July 12, 1951. The blast then was blamed on an accumulation of gas in an adjoining building. Officials of the Merrill City Gas Utility said the Penney explosion "could not possibly" have been caused by a gas leak. They said none of their pipes is connected to the building.

Teamster Monitor

WASHINGTON (AP)—A federal court petition has been filed asking the removal of William E. Bufalino as a member of the Teamsters Union board of monitors.

Godfrey P. Schmidt, a former monitor, filed the action late Monday. He alleged Bufalino's appointment to the board as a representative of the union was part of what he called a plot by union President James R. Hoffa to delay the monitors' work in cleaning up the union.

Give Convention Program

The first Uniform Program was organized in 1938 but it was necessarily disbanded during World War II. The present Uniform Program was organized in 1954 and in 1955 named Pennsylvania State Champions at the State Firemen's Convention in Lancaster. There are group photos of the marching units.

The Ladies' Auxiliary was organized in May, 1939, to assist with the company's carnival. The first officers were: President, Mrs. Mary Weaver Altoff, pictured; vice president, Mrs. Helen Wisotzkey Garner; secretary, Mrs. Louis Eppelman Myers, pictured; treasurer, Mrs. Harry W. Badgers. All presidents and secretaries since organization are listed, and the 50 member roster given.

There is information concerning participation in the Adams County Firemen's Association, fire scenes, Presidents, fire chiefs and secretaries named since 1885. Pictures of the present officers, a 1960, 273 members, roster.

The program for the Adams County Volunteer Firemen's Association convention on August 6 is given. The association officers are given, along with a brief history of the 28 companies in the association and advertisements.

Downs Continues
To Smash Records

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. — Shenandoah Downs will salute the Rockville City Centennial tonight with the Montgomery Chamber of Commerce Purse to be raced at a mile and one sixteenth. A field of ten headed by Paul C. Jackson's Plena and Millard E. Gilbert's Vixen's Joy will contest the feature.

Track officials are looking for another weekday record following Monday night's new attendance and mutual highs of 5,493 and $274,399. It was the best Monday since Shenandoah opened last year. The bonanza pool hit another high for a week night, with $16,634 in.

One fan picked five winners to collect $10,013.60 in the Big Bonanza and 49 persons correctly named four winners to get $87.40. The payoffs came on top of the record $16,928.20 collected by one woman Saturday night.

make a recommendation to council. Smith was a member of the "Rec" board as a representative of the borough school board and his successor also will be a school director.

President Kenneth Dengler presided at Monday's meeting at which arrangements were made for a special meeting next Monday evening when Burgess Wilbur Plank Town Council President Glenn Guise and Big League President Patrick McDermitt will be invited to meet with the board at the "Rec" Park.

The subject up for discussion will be an offer from Roy Coldsmith to furnish, deliver and scatter fill for a new parking lot south of the southern ball field used by the Big League at the "Rec" Park. Discussion on Monday evening brought out that a roadway would have to be constructed to the new lot and there was some doubt about the desirability of having a road cut through the picnic area there. A substitute proposal was enlargement of one or both of the present parking areas.

Attendance Is Cited

Reporting to the board that the practice of burning rubbish collected in waste cans at the "Rec" park has been ordered stopped, Hilger was directed to arrange to have the local garbage collection service visit the park twice a week for the remainder of the season and then once a week to empty the waste cans.

Hilger called the board's attention to figures published by The Gettysburg Times Saturday showing an increase of 5,000 in attendance at recreation programs here in the first six months of this year as compared with the same period in 1959.

The board discussed at length at its three-hour meeting the need for facilities for a year-around swimming program as part of the recreation activities. The popularity of the summer swimming classes held at the old pool at Gettysburg College was noted and it was pointed out that such a program would find similar participation the year around.

May Continue Program

The directors indicated they may approach Gettysburg College through the Community Committee on the possibility of making the old pool in the SCA available for community use. The college has a new olympic-size pool in use in the Student Union Building. The "Rec" program paid the college $25 a week for use of the pool on afternoons this summer. The board heard from Hilger recommendations that when it replaces him it consider the addition of at least part-time help for the new director. He also recommended that the winter adult education program no longer be a responsibility of the recreation director.

Directors in attendance in addition to President Dengler included G. W. Lefever, E. Donald Scott and Mrs. Janet Wickerham, secretary.

LIST POLLS

ASC office manager, said in a letter to wheat producers in this county.

The United States Department of Agriculture recently announced that the national average support price to producers for 1960-crop wheat will be $1.78 per bushel, an increase of one cent per bushel above the "advance" minimum price for this year's crop announced in July, 1959. The increase results from a higher current heat parity price than a year ago when the advance minimum price was announced.

When the minimum price was set in accordance with "forward pricing" provisions of law, the United States Department of Agriculture announced that the 1960-crop wheat support price would be redetermined as of July 1, the beginning of the marketing year, on the basis of the current wheat parity price and the per cent level of support as indicated by wheat supply relationships.

To Be 75 Pct. Of Parity

No change is indicated in the per cent level of support, announced in July, 1959, at 75 per cent of wheat parity price. This level is determined in a variable range from 75 to 90 per cent of parity on the basis of wheat supply relationships. The total supply of wheat available for the 1960-61 marketing year is now estimated to be 2,561 million bushels. This is 190.5 per cent of the estimated normal supply of 1,345 million bushels. Under the law's formula a wheat supply percentage above 130 per cent calls for the minimum 75 per cent level of support.

At a support level of 75 per cent of parity, the July 1960 parity price calls for a 1960-crop national average support price of $1.78 per bushel as announced herein, one cent higher than the minimum support of $1.77 per bushel announced last year.

Minimum terminal and county rates are being uniformly increased one cent per bushel for the commercial wheat-producing area.

Loans Or Purchases

Wheat support will be accomplished as in the past through loans on farm- and warehouse-stored wheat and through purchase agreements. Loans will be available from harvest time through January 31, 1961. In Pennsylvania, the maturity date will be February 28, 1961, for loans. To get wheat price support in 1960 in the commercial wheat-producing states, a producer must be in compliance with his 1960 wheat acreage allotment.

Support prices to all growers in the noncommercial wheat area will be 75 per cent of the rate determined for the county on the basis of the $1.78 national average price announced today.

The national average support price for 1959-crop wheat was $1.81 per bushel, 75 per cent of the July, 1959, wheat parity price.

Today's Talk

YOUR INSTINCTIVE IMPULSES
Most people grow commonplace and tread in fear because of repression. Our instinctive impulses are natural. They may sometimes get us into trouble as they run into set conventions, but they make our personalities
all that they are.

Nearly every child has a distinct personality. And it is free and attractive, because it is so impulsive. As people grow in age, they start to repress, so that to many the perfectly wholesome acts of those who are younger are almost a shock.

But to the mind that ever is growing, a new world is opened up each morning. The more you express what you think, the more generous in viewpoint do you become. And the finer visioned, also. So that, after all, your instinctive impulses are quite a safe and sane guide to honest conduct.

Not every thought that we have is good and worth expressing.
But the more we do express what is good and worth while,
the more we are able to express.
The viewpoint of the un-schooling is always interesting—because it is always personal and original. It isn't colored up with opinion. The province of education is to bring out and to create, but in too many cases it represses and kills off honest expression. Do not be ashamed to obey your instinctive impulses.

Natural society acts as a protectorate to itself. So if we are taught to regard the feelings of others, our very freedom of action comes forward to spur us individually and to lead others along with us!

Tomorrow Mrs. Adams will talk on the subject: "Good Evening—Friends!"

Just Folks

A FRIEND TO LEAN ON
The most comfortable feeling
That the breast of man can get
When the dark of night comes stealing
Over days that brought regret
And he's hurt and bruised and aching
And he thinks his strength is gone,
Is the glad and warm handshaking
Of a friend to lean upon.

Let a million strangers doubt me,
Let the hundreds mock and sneer
And say bitter things about me,
I can brush away the tear
And my course refuse to alter
But keep bravely going on,
If I know that when I falter
I've a friend to lean upon.

KE FINISHES PARTY LEADER BRIEFING PLAN

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP) — President Eisenhower has completed basic arrangements for Sens.
John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B.
Johnson, the Democratic ticket leaders, to receive confidential national security information for their exclusive personal knowledge.

The two political camps agreed,
however, that this would in no way restrict full and free discussion of foreign policy in the campaign.

The vacationing President formally offered the top secret data late Monday. Kennedy, his party's presidential nominee, promptly accepted for himself and Johnson, his running mate.

Workout Details

All that apparently remains now for Kennedy-Johnson representatives to work out with Allen W.
Dulles, chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, procedural details as to just when and where the Democratic standard-bearers will receive personally the intelligence data throughout the campaign.

The agreement between Eisenhower and the two senators was nailed down in a jig time after it had appeared briefly over the weekend that there might be trouble in getting together.

In first informally accepting Eisenhower's announced intention to offer security information, Kennedy had designated go-betweens to accept the CIA data for him.
The Massachusetts senator named Adlai E. Stevenson and Rep.
Chester Bowles (D-Conn) as his liaison men to deal with the administration on international affairs.

The President put out word that he wouldn't do and that the information could be given only personally to Kennedy and his running mate from Texas.

SCORE PITCHES 1ST FULL GAME FOR WHITE SOX

CHICAGO (AP) — Herb Score
turned in his first complete pitch-

White Sox Monday night, but the often wild southpaw still hasn't reached the peak the defending champions have set for him.

Score turned back the Boston
Red Sox 9-1 behind a 14-hit attack to which he contributed a single tory against three defeats.

The win moved the White Sox into second place, two games behind the New York Yankees.

Score walked four men — all in the first three innings—and gave up only five hits. But his only strikeout came in the 14th inning
when he got leadoff man Willie Tasby on a curve ball.

"It was the only curve he got

Herb Score Pitches Chisox Into Second Place In AL By Beating Bosox; Yanks Win

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Al Lopez finally has begun to collect dividends for his weeks and months of patience in the Herb Score case.

Score came through with a complete game, his first after 15 straight failures over a two-season span, to pitch Lopez' Chicago White Sox into second place Monday night in the American League race.

"Al understands me," said Score shortly after he was traded to Chicago by Cleveland April 18. "He knows my problem. He's helping me."

Close In On Yankees

Although Lopez understood the left-hander's peculiar problems and stuck with him in the face of criticism, Score was slow to repay him for his faith.

Until Score threw a five-hitter at Boston for a 9-1 victory, he had not gone the route since July 14, 1959.

Score's pitching, backed by a 14-hit attack, boosted the White Sox into second place, only two games behind the New York Yankees, who dumped Cleveland into third place with a 9-2 triumph behind Whitey Ford.

Garver's First Win

Monday was a night for comebacks. Ned Garver also chose the occasion to record his first victory of the season, pitching Kansas City to a 5-1 decision over Baltimore. The defeat left the fourth-place Orioles four games off the pace. Detroit and Washington were not scheduled.

The entire National League had an open date Monday.

Roy Sievers ran his consecutive game hitting streak to 21, longest in the majors this season, as the Sox won their 17th in their last 25 starts. Boston had taken a seven-game winning streak into the contest. Gene Freese, who hits best against Boston, had three hits, making it 22 in 33 at bats or a .667 average against the Red Sox.

11th Homer For Siebern

Mickey Mantle's three-run homer was the big blow of a five-run fourth inning for the Yankees in their victory over Dick Stigman. It was Mantle's 22nd. Roger Maris added No. 29 in the ninth off Barry Latman, while Ford calmly turned back the Indians with eight hits, including John Romano's 10th homer.

Norm Siebern hit his 11th homer with a man on and Andy Carey slammed a two-run double as Kansas City broke a five-game losing streak. Garver scattered seven hits while loser Hal Brown gave up all nine Kansas City hits and runs.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Are the Williamsport Grays beginning to choke up?

Suddenly they've lost four straight and their Eastern League lead has dwindled from 6½ games to 3.

Second-place Springfield defeated the Grays twice Monday night, 3-2 and 2-0, following their doubleheader loss to Reading on Sunday.

In other games Monday night Binghamton defeated Lancaster 10-1 in the nightcap of a doubleheader after dropping the opener 3-2 and Reading beat Allentown 4-3.

Jim Duffalo (7-2) and Gary Thomas (6-7) hurled the victories for Springfield, allowing three and eight hits respectively.

The Giants trailed 2-1 going into their sixth inning at Pynchon Park in the seven-inning opener but they rallied for two runs with an assist from the wind which had twice played havoc with right-fielder John Herrnstein.

Emt Fiore singled, then Charlie Teuscher lofted a fly toward right. Herrnstein, who was playing deep, started in slowly but the strong wind held the ball up and it fell in for a single. After Duffalo fouled out, Muggs Coffman lashed a long drive toward right that appeared to be an extra base hit. Herrnstein raced toward the wall, but the wind again held the drive up and it fell in front of Herrnstein for a double, scoring the two runs.

Little Jack Little, the British born singer-pianist of radio fame, was educated at the University of Iowa.

FAVOR PALMER TO WIN PGA ON THURSDAY

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Sam Snead took his first look at the re-modeled Firestone Country Club course, where the PGA championship will be played Thursday through Sunday, and pronounced it "a tough test of golf."

Despite this estimate, Snead shot a 69 in Monday's practice round, becoming the first player to break par on the toughened par-70, 7,165-yard layout.

Snead, 48, who is bidding for a fourth PGA championship, matched par with 35 on the front nine then closed with a 34 despite bogeys on the last two holes.

3-Time Winner

"Weather conditions, high winds and rains could be a determining factor," said Snead, winner of the PGA crown in 1942, 1949 and 1951. He thought a par 280 would win the 72-hole medal play tournament.

But Alex Redi, professional at Firestone Country Club since 1946, guessed that scores would be a little higher. Redi said he thought a 283 or 284 would easily win the $9,000 top prize.

Arnold Palmer, favored to win the tournament, again had trouble in Monday's round, winding up with a 75. He carded 76 Saturday.

Palmer has won seven tournaments on the PGA tour in the last eight months. If he should capture the PGA, he will be the first golfer to win the Masters, the U.S. Open and the PGA the same year.

Dwight Sieber (2-2) struck out 13 Springfield batters in the nightcap and gave up only five hits but the Grays were unable to score for him, leaving nine men on base.

The Grays pushed across a run in the fourth when Carl Boles beat out a bunt and continued to third on Sieber's wild throw then scored on Ed Herstek's single. Thomas drove in the other run with a single in the eighth.

Home runs accounted for all of Binghamton's runs. In the nightcap Tom Tresh belted a pair and Don Lock and Dick Berardino each connected for one. One of Tresh's drives was a grand slammer which helped Hal Reniff (5-4) to victory.

The Triplets' Bud Zipfel hit his 21st homer in the opener to tie the game 2-2 in the sixth but Don Eaddy countered with one in the seventh to give the Red Roses and Bucky Bowers (2-2) the victory.

Four unearned runs in the fourth inning offset a three-run homer by Allentown's Marlon Coughtry to give Reading its win. Julius Grant (8-5) got the victory.

LISTON POUNDS ZORA FOLLEY FOR KO IN THIRD

By FRANK PITMAN

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The massive 14-inch fists of Sonny Liston thundered a tattoo today on the door to the heavyweight boxing throne room occupied by Champion Floyd Patterson.

Liston's sledge-hammer hands smashed Zora Folley to the canvas twice in the second round and knocked him out in 28 seconds of the third round of their scheduled 12-round bout Monday night in the Denver Coliseum.

"I got him quicker than I expected," the unmarked 215½-pound slugger from Philadelphia said in his dressing room afterward.

Folley Made Mistake

Folley, 198½, of Chandler, Ariz., said he had made a mistake in trying to slug it out with Liston. "I fought the wrong type of fight—I fought his fight," he said.

Liston said he had tagged Folley with a left hook that decked him for a count of nine early in the second round. That caused Folley "to start respecting my left hook," Liston said. "Then I started faking with the left, and that opened him up for my right hand."

Saved Once By Bell

The combinations slammed Folley to the canvas at the end of the second round with the bell sounding just as the knockdown count reached nine. Folley scrambled to his feet and wobbled to his corner where handlers worked speedily to revive him.

The Arizona moved out for the third round still groggy and became an easy target for the finishing bone-crushing left jabs and right hooks by the Philadelphia.

Folley tumbled face down onto the canvas for the final count. He never moved until seconds after the knockdown.

Liston, ranked No. 1 challenger to Patterson, now boasts 21 knock-out victories in 31 fights. His meeting with the heavyweight champion, however, will have to take a back seat to the scheduled rematch between Patterson and Ingemar Johansson.

Had Won 10 In Row

Folley, who entered the fight ranked No. 2 by Ring Magazine and No. 3 by the National Boxing Assn., had won 10 straight fights, three by knockouts, before Monday night's defeat.

The Arizona won his boxing skill and swift punching hands to win the first round on the cards of all ring officials and The Associated Press.

Even after the first knockdown in the second round, Folley rallied brilliantly and jarred Liston with a two-fisted attack. That only served to bring on Liston's sledge-hammer blows that decked Folley again.

Kennedy Has Taken Stand On Many Important Issues During 14 Years' Service

Editor's Note — Behind the visible assets of personality and vote-getting prowess, there's another key element in a candidate's image — his political past. This second of three articles on the Democratic presidential nominee discusses his record on domestic and foreign affairs issues.

By RELMAN MORIN
AP Special Correspondent

In campaigning for the Democratic presidential nomination, Sen. John F. Kennedy spoke out on everything from foreign policy to fishing, from the problem of depressed regions to the importance of primary elections.

He plunged into the controversial areas of farm policy, civil rights, and labor legislation.

Before that, there were 14 years in the Senate and the House of Representatives, bringing his speeches and compiling his record. Kennedy says it is the record of a liberal.

Kennedy Record

Political labels such as "liberal," "conservative," "progressive," and the gradations thereof, mean different things to different people. But here are some of the highlights of the Kennedy record and the results of it when he became the Democratic nominee:

LABOR AND MANAGEMENT — He was the chairman in 1957 of a subcommittee which investigated improper practices in labor and management. A year later, after serving on the McClellan committee, he introduced the Kennedy-Edwin Bill which passed the Senate but was changed in the House.

This earned him the enmity of some labor leaders, notably James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union. But George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, expressed "our appreciation for your leadership in the fight to enact a law which will help honest labor and honest management deal with the problems created by a corrupt minority."

Union Support

At the Democratic convention, AFL-CIO leaders supported him for the nomination.

FARM POLICY — The Farmers Union did not publicly endorse Kennedy when he was battling in the primaries for the presidential nomination. A number of its leaders, however, told reporters they favored him over the other Democratic candidates.

Kennedy spoke at length on the farm problem prior to the Wisconsin primary. One of his heart-of-the-matter statements was: "We have no wish to become a nation of giant commercial corporation farms and absentee landlords. Our whole vitality as a nation depends on the contrary course. Our job is to look out for the family farm, and we can count on the family farm to look out for the future of our soil."

Civil Rights

CIVIL RIGHTS — Two years after the Supreme Court decision ordering desegregation in the public schools, Kennedy said, in response to a question, "It is unanimous, and it is the law. Under our system, that is the end of the matter. I accept it."

In the debate this year on civil rights, Kennedy voted to give the attorney general power to intervene in civil rights cases, the federal registrar plan to insure voting rights, and amendments to extend civil rights protection. A Negro newspaper, the Boston Chronicle, said in an editorial, "Sen. Kennedy thus demonstrates by his deed that he believes in the passage of civil rights legislation."

In other areas, Kennedy cosponsored a bill to raise the minimum wage to $1.25 and to extend coverage of the bill to eight million additional workers. He introduced a "bill of rights" to improve living conditions for older

'MITCH' SAYS MILLIONS LIKE GOOD MUSIC

Editor's Note — "Sing Along with Mitch" was one of the notable successes of the TV season. In the following guest column, the hero of the show tells why.

By MITCH MILLER

Written For The Associated Press

Since the beginning of television and until May 24, 1960, with very few exceptions, the quality of musical sound and musical production numbers on TV have been awful. "Hurray for the picture and damn the sound" has been the uncreative cry of TV's creative people.

On May 24, 1960, we did an hour show titled "Sing Along with Mitch." The final count still isn't complete, but the last report revealed that close to 20,000 letters, phone calls and telegrams were received NBC, by me, by the sponsor, and by newspapers all over the country. Their only purpose was to voice delighted satisfaction with the show. In 90 percent of these letters the writers mentioned the sponsor, the thing TV has been dying for for years.

Millions Were Starved

What really does this avalanche of praise, for which I am so grateful, mean? It means that millions of American youngsters and adults were starved for a selection of popular music with familiar and pretty melodies, vocalized by a superb chorus of 25, reproduced with detailed attention to sound quality that everybody could hum or sing with. The star of our show was music — music that has withstood the test of 40 years of singing around the piano. The pictures that accompanied this music were simple, uncomplicated, and never once interfered.

I've recorded nine "Sing Along" albums so far which have sold over 4½ million copies. What more proof could you have that America wants to hear and sing people and an amendment to the Social Security Act to provide medical insurance for the aged. NATIONAL DEFENSE — He called for a stepped-up missile program, the rebuilding and modernization of the Army and Marine Corps, and an emergency stop-gap air alert program to deter missile attacks.

Archeologists Uncovering Famed Rifle Works Razed By Confederates In 1861

Excavation of the famed Hall Rifle Works and United States Rifle Factory at Harpers Ferry National Monument ended this week with rewarding results.

Superintendent Frank H. Anderson announced the findings during the investigative archeological excavation.

The United States Rifle Factory, built on the same site as the earlier Hall-Rifle Works, consists of nine buildings: Filing shop, finishing and machine shop, annealing furnace and proof house, machine shop, tilt hammer and forging shop, barrel drilling and finishing, coal house, stock house and roof house.

Few Artifacts

The archeologists, Ed Larrabee and his assistant, Bill Hershey, believe they have uncovered the cornerstones of all but the last three structures.

Surprisingly few artifacts were uncovered in preliminary digging, evidence of the thoroughness of Confederate troops who removed the arms-producing machinery to Fayetteville, N. C., before destroying the factory buildings in 1861.

However, the bearded Larrabee has high hopes of recovering treasure 19th century machine parts. "Ample evidence found in the stratigraphy of the dig would seem to indicate that these relics do exist," he said, "many more than we had previously hoped for."

Still A Mystery

In the last full production year of the United States Rifle factory operations, 2,701 Model 1855 rifles were manufactured, another 223 were sighted and 1,971 more rifles were altered to .58 caliber. In addition 20,793 rifle accessories were completed. How many of these pieces are still underground remains a mystery.

The most interesting find to date are the remains of a wooden floor discovered a layer below the foundation of one of the United States Rifle Factory buildings. Larrabee believes this is all that remains of one of the original Hall Rifle Works buildings, where the first breech-loading flintlock rifle with completely interchangeable parts was mass-produced.

The extensive, exhaustive archeological excavation of this site, now in the planning stages for next summer, should throw new light on these important bygone industries. When the excavation is complete, Superintendent Anderson and his staff will place signs, markers and exhibits at the site to enable visitors to Harpers Ferry National Monument to understand the significance of the historic role played by the two industries, which operated over a good songs? Blames Executives

Why did I have to wait so long, then, to put on this simple show that has been ready for years? Because the TV executives have one primary rule — they would rather fail with stars who cannot create excitement rather than risk succeeding with unknown but talented people.

They are not, or were not, interested in how well you entertain but ask what star have you got. The stardom people were finally impressed, I guess, with the powerful success story of the unprecedented sale of the "Sing Along" albums and decided to take a gamble.

SEN. WHALLEY HOLDS KEY TO GOP CONTROL

HARRISBURG (AP) — A decision by Sen. J. Irving Whalley (R-Somerset) holds the key to continued Republican control of the Senate in the current legislative session.

Whalley, a candidate for Congress in the fall election, will talk to state GOP leaders on the advisability of resigning his Senate seat during the party's national convention next week in Chicago.

When he was chosen to seek the 18th Congressional District seat left vacant by the death of Douglas H. Elliott, Whalley indicated he was willing to resign immediately if party leaders approved.

Face Stalemate

But the death Sunday night of Sen. Thomas P. Harney (Chester) reduced the Senate GOP membership to the 26 members needed for a majority. If Whalley were to step down, the GOP would lose control of the upper chamber. It also would create a legislative stalemate since Democrats, with only 22 members, would be unable to exercise control.

Republicans began the session with 28 senators. Elliott's election to fill the vacant seat of the late Rep. Richard Simpson trimmed the membership to 27 before Harney's death.

Whalley said Monday he will discuss the matter with Senate President Pro Tempore M. Harvey Taylor (R-Dauphin) and State Chairman George I. Bloom in Chicago.

Reviews Factors

"I'll want to talk to some local leaders, too," he added. "It's going to be a difficult decision to make. I'll wait to see what happens."

Taylor said he didn't think that Whalley would resign.

Whalley said his resignation would enable the party to select someone to run for his Senate seat in the November election. It also

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass
Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath." Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

would afford him more time for congressional campaigning, he said.

Returns Sept. 12

"But in view of developments I don't know what will happen," he added.

The Legislature is due back from another recess Sept. 12. The Senate will be briefed then on progress of a special committee's probe of alleged vote frauds in Philadelphia a Democratic stronghold.

The eight-county congressional district in which Whalley is running traditionally has sent a Republican to Washington. It comprises Union, Snyder, Mifflin, Fulton, Huntingdon, Franklin, Bedford, and Somerset counties.

Play Writer Vidal Ill With Pneumonia

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gore Vidal, the author and playwright, is confined to a hotel suite here with pneumonia.

Doctors say his case is light and he may be able to leave sometime today for his New York home.

Vidal is campaigning for Congress in New York State. His late grandfather, Thomas Gore, was U.S. senator from Oklahoma.

Currently a Broadway hit is Vidal's play, "The Best Man." He also is the author of "Visit To A Small Planet" and many short stories.

CHEVROLET

Not a single cracked egg since Chevy took over the route

That '60 Fleetside pickup you see takes whatever kind of road comes along, and makes about 250 stops a day delivering eggs house to house for Mr. Harry Hansen of Missoula, Montana. "With my previous truck," Mr. Hansen writes, "I always had some cracked eggs. Cargo damage always cut into my profits. But the new Chevy eliminated that problem completely. I haven't had one cracked egg with my new truck and I've had up to a ton of eggs in it without any difficulty. . . . I didn't know a truck could ride so nice."

Chevy rides nice, all right: takes good care of fragile cargoes. But that's not even the half of it. Torsion-spring suspension also means longer life for the truck, extra thousands of working miles, because the sheet metal and body components take less of a beating. You can run off-the-road or over back trails at faster safe speeds, too; get in more trips a day, make more money. Those facts are as true of the big Chevrolet heavyweights as they are of the pickups. Any model you name. Get one on your job and you've got the world's most efficient, most economical way to haul any load over any road. Your dealer will be happy to prove that statement any day you say.

◀ "I'm getting close to 20 miles to the gallon," Mr. Hansen states, "and that's on stop-and-go delivery."

Red Threat

In Brussels, Belgian Foreign Minister Pierre Wigny announced his government will ask the U.N. Security Council to embargo arms shipments to the Congo.

May Embargo Arms

Wigny said Belgium's U. N. delegate, Walter Loidan, would put the request before the council when it meets Wednesday to discuss the situation in the new African nation.

Soviet propaganda organs continued to rail at Belgium and the United States, accusing them of trying to preserve colonial control of the Congo.

Reports from several sources said several Moroccan members of the U. N. peace force had been killed in two separate clashes Monday, the first casualties to be suffered by U. N. troops.

Fire On Moroccans

One clash reportedly occurred in Thysville, 75 miles southwest of Leopoldville. Moroccan units had been sent there by train to pacify the area and were fired on.

Another report said a Moroccan detachment entering Matadi, the Congo's only seaport, clashed with Congolese troops, with casualties on both sides. The report said the Moroccans were unable to occupy the harbor.

Brussels Radio said that mutinous Congolese had fired Monday at a U. S. Air Force helicopter at Inkisi, south of Leopoldville, but that no one was injured. The rebels reportedly scored eight hits on the helicopter, which was searching for a Belgian helicopter missing for two days. The American craft returned safely to Brazzaville across the Congo River.

MARTIN ASKS MORE SPENDING FOR HIGHWAYS

PITTSBURGH (AP) — State Highways Secretary Park H. Martin has called for more funds and more engineers to halt what he terms the obsolescence of Pennsylvania's highway system.

"We are at least 15 years behind in meeting the needs of the department," Martin said Monday at a meeting of the Pennsylvania Highway Information Assn.

He added that if the department hopes to meet even its minimum needs over the next 12 years, we should be spending at a rate of a quarter of a billion dollars a year.

More Of Everything

There is a considerable gap between what we have in the way of roads and what we have in numbers of vehicles on the roads, Martin said, adding:

"This gap will widen and become even more serious unless there is a far greater effort than at present to modernize and expand the state road network."

The state official said more from Leopoldville in the former French Congo.

Le Courier d'Afrique, a Leopoldville newspaper, said 50 whites have been officially reported killed since the start of the post-independence trouble and 20 more have disappeared. About 15,000 of Leopoldville's 20,000 whites have fled, the paper added.

trained engineers, more supporting technicians and a higher level of spending for construction and maintenance are needed.

"We hope to initiate this year new construction totaling 175 million dollars, but even this is far short of our ultimate needs," Martin said.

Lists Damaging Blows

He cited the following as damaging blows to the hopes of expanding the highway construction effort:

1. The refusal of the 1959 State Legislature to substantially increase revenues for state highway construction.
2. The reduction of the state's allocation of federal aid by some 32 million dollars, and,
3. The clamping of more restrictions on the spending of federal funds.

2nd Best Not Enough
"An assured supply of ample funds would do much to facilitate planning in the department," said Martin. "Indecision causes delays, but decisions are not easy to make when funds are uncertain. Advance planning is essential to proper functioning of the department of highways."

Martin told the association that 1960 may turn out to be the second best year for highway construction in the department's history. But he added:

"I must stress we do not consider second best or equal performance good enough. We must exceed present levels by a wide margin or the gap between facilities available and demands placed upon them will grow to unmanageable proportions."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Steel Earnings Dip With Increased Cost

CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa. (AP)—Harleston R. Wood, president of the Alan Wood Steel Co., says the substantial drop in the firm's earnings for the second quarter of this year resulted principally from increased employment costs and a decline in shipments in May and June.

The firm reported Sunday that net income for the second quarter was $350,000 or 42 cents per common share compared to $855,000 or $1.14 per common share for the first three months of this year. Sales and operating revenues amounted to $16,783,000 for the second quarter compared to $20,206,000 for the first quarter.

People prefer advertising in newspapers—consider it news. Ads are one of the "most read" features in the daily newspapers, profiting both reader and advertiser.
